Children, Youth & Families Chaplain – 3-year contract

(re-advertisement)

St Stephen's Church, Soundwell, is looking for a full-time, self-starting, proactive Children, Youth & Families Chaplain to lead and develop and grow the Jesus-following children, youth and families work within the community of Soundwell.

The right person will have a passion for, and experience of, working with children, youth and families and seeing them come to know Jesus and grow to know him more. They will be part of the Church team and be charged with growing teams to achieve these aims. Above all, we are looking for the person God is calling to us, and to partner with His work in developing them to inhabit their calling, gifting and ministry to a greater extent.

Could this be you??

The salary band for a 37½ hour week is £26 - 29,000, depending on experience. We could consider fewer hours for the right person.
